Branislav Markovic

He worked as a teacher until 1986, when he gains the status of a freelance artist and becomes a member of UPIDIV (Association of Applied Arts Artists and Designers of Vojvodina). Curious by nature, he tried his hand in several artistic disciplines: painting, graphics, applied illustration, comics, design and photography. Out of all, watercolor has a special place in his opus.

He is an associate member of the Tisa Academy of watercolors, manager of the school of watercolors that exists from 2011 in Museum of Vojvodina and is one of the founders of Watercolorist association „VIR“ in Novi Sad. He has had a numerous solo and group exhibitions at home and abroad. He participated in many art events and gatherings and has received several awards for painting and photography. His works are in many collections and institutions in our country and in the world, and the photographs have been published in national and international journals.
